

GMAT PREP COURSE

Learn test-taking strategies to help improve your score with DePaul University's GMAT Prep Course. This nine-week course, offered at the Loop Campus in downtown Chicago, will help you prepare for the Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT). If you are looking to obtain a graduate degree in business, you know how critical GMAT results are for applying to business school. DePaul's course is taught by experienced professors and uses the latest software provided by Cambridge Educational Services.

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT

In this program, you will:

- Review basic rules that govern grammar, logic, and argument construction
- Discover time-saving strategies and techniques that will help you solve quantitative questions rapidly
- Learn how to approach data and logistical questions and analyze the various types of questions
- Gain tips to quickly examine lengthy reading comprehension passages
- Understand the most common types of arguments, assumptions, and conclusions in critical reasoning
- Learn how to quickly generate and organize a strong essay
- Become familiar with the tendencies, patterns, logic, and structure of GMAT questions that will help to demystify and break down intimidating and seemingly complicated questions
- Take the pre-test online and receive course materials shipped directly to your home
